Partnership Support Form for Residence

For applications under the Partnership Category of Residence Instructions

Notes for New Zealand partners

This form is for supporting an applicant for New Zealand residence under the Partnership Category of New Zealand Government Residence instructions.

You must normally be 18 or older to support an application under the Partnership Category. If you are aged 16 or 17, you may only support an application under the Partnership Category with the permission of your parents or guardians.

Where this form refers to 'principal applicant' this means the person declared to be the principal applicant in the form Residence Application (INZ 1000). 'Applicant' means any person included in that residence application.

Completing this partnership support form does not mean that the residence application of the person(s) you are supporting will be approved. Applicants must meet all the requirements of the Partnership Category before they will be granted residence in New Zealand.

For full details of the requirements which must be met by applicants for New Zealand residence, please read our Self-Assessment Guide for Residence in New Zealand (INZ 1003).

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz, or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

When filling in this form, write clearly in English using CAPITAL LETTERS.

To support a person under Family – Partnership Category

If you wish to support your partner (in relation to an applicant, 'partner' means the spouse, civil union partner or de facto partner of the applicant, which may include same-sex couples) for residence under the Family – Partnership Category, please answer these questions.

Are you a New Zealand citizen, or the holder of a New Zealand residence class visa, or the holder of a valid Australian passport?

Yes  No

If you:

- hold a valid Australian passport but do not hold a current New Zealand residence class visa, or
- hold a New Zealand residence class visa which was granted on the basis that you were the holder of an Australian permanent residence visa or an Australian resident return visa, you must prove that New Zealand is your primary place of established residence at the time your partner's application is made and assessed. For a list of acceptable evidence, see the Residence Guide (INZ 1002).

Are you the partner of the person you wish to support? (Under New Zealand Government Residence Instructions a 'partner' means a partner either legally married, or in a civil union, or in a de facto relationship (whether opposite or same-sex.))

Yes  No

If you answered No to either of the above questions, you do not meet the requirements to support your partner under the Family – Partnership Category.

If you answered Yes to all of the above questions, please read the definitions below before completing this partnership support form.

Definition of 'eligibility to support your partner'

Applications for residence under the Family – Partnership Category will not be approved if the New Zealand partner:

- has been convicted at any time of any offence involving domestic violence or of a sexual nature prior to the date the application was made (unless granted a character waiver)
- was the perpetrator of an incident of domestic violence which has resulted in the grant of a resident visa under the Victims of Domestic Violence Category
- has been included in or supported an application where a residence class visa was granted on the basis of a partnership in the five years immediately preceding the date of the current application, or
- has been included in or supported more than one previous residence class visa application where a visa was granted on the basis of a partnership with a New Zealand partner.

Definition of 'a residence class visa granted on the basis of a partnership'

A residence class visa is considered to have been granted on the basis of a partnership if the New Zealand partner previously:

- supported a successful partnership category residence application
- was the principal applicant in a successful partnership residence application
- was the principal applicant in any New Zealand residence application that included a secondary applicant partner who was also granted residence, or
- was granted residence as the partner of a principal applicant in any New Zealand residence application.

i All references to Partnership Category applications above include any applications made under the Family Category Spouse and De Facto Partner policies in force before the Partnership Category took effect.
