

Partner and Child Resident Visa Declaration Form

A declaration for resident visa applicants if another person is applying online on their behalf

Using this form

Use this form if another person will submit an online application on your behalf. This includes if you are over 18 and have been included in the resident visa application of your parent.

You must sign Section A to:

- show you understand and agree to the statements about your application and any visa you may be granted, and agree to the application being submitted.

You must also sign Section B if:

- the person submitting your application is a licensed immigration adviser, or is exempt from licensing (such as a lawyer), and
- will continue to act on your behalf after submitting your application.

Section A: Resident Visa Declaration

I agree:

- to tell Immigration New Zealand about any changes to my circumstances that occur after making this application (including a change in my employment or partnership status) that may (i) affect the decision on my application for a visa, or (ii) affect the decision to grant entry permission based on the visa for which I am applying

I declare:

- that there are no matters or warrants outstanding, or investigations of any kind, which could have any current or future effect on the assessment of my good character, or the good character of any other persons included in this application
- that all my family members, including any adopted by custom and my grandparents or legal guardians (if any) if both my parents are deceased have been listed in the application form

I understand that:

- if I have received immigration advice from an immigration adviser and if that immigration adviser is not licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will not further process my application
- the non-declaration of any family members may result in that family member not being recognised as part of my family in future applications
- convictions for certain offences committed up to 10 years after first being granted a residence class visa can result in deportation from New Zealand
- any advice given to me by Immigration New Zealand before making this application was intended to assist me, and acting on that does not mean my application for residence will be approved
- Immigration New Zealand may provide information about my entitlement to work to potential employers via the online VisaView system.

I authorise:

- Immigration New Zealand to provide information about my health and my immigration status to any health service agency
- any health service agency to provide information about my health to Immigration New Zealand
- Immigration New Zealand to make any necessary enquiries about information on this form and/or accompanying documentation, and to share this information with other government agencies (including overseas agencies) to the extent necessary to make decisions about my immigration status

- any agency whether in New Zealand or overseas, including but not limited to border or immigration agencies, education providers, financial institutions, foreign embassies, government authorities, healthcare providers, insurance providers, police or other law enforcement agencies, that holds information (including personal information) related to information on this application form and/or accompanying documentation to disclose that information to Immigration New Zealand or the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment, so that they can:
 - make a decision on this application
 - answer enquiries about my immigration status once my application has been decided.

I also authorise of to submit my application online (name this person only if they are applying on your behalf but not included in the application).

Section B: Authority to act with regards to your visa application

To be completed if an immigration adviser, lawyer or another person exempt from the requirement to be licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act has recorded your information in the online form, will be submitting the online form on your behalf and will continue to act on your behalf throughout the processing of your application.

Note: Only a licensed immigration adviser or person exempt from licensing may act on your behalf throughout the application process. See www.immigration.govt.nz/adviserlicensing for more information about who is exempt from licensing.

I authorise the person identified in Section A who will submit my application, to act on my behalf with regards to the processing of that visa application.

I also authorise all other licensed immigration advisers or persons exempt from licensing who work for the organisation named above to act on my behalf. Note: the person identified in Section A will receive all communication from Immigration New Zealand.
